

SCREEN

International call for photography works in audiovisual format

La Nuu festival 2023 launches an international Open Call for photo works in audiovisual format. A number of preselected works will be shown during the SCREEN night of 29th of October. The international jury conformed by professionals related to the medium of photography will then appoint a single winner that will receive a 1000€ Prize (taxes excluded).

The members of the jury are:

Pucho, Juan Pedro Martín vocalist of the group Vetusta Morla, an inveterate cinephile, the curator Natasha Christia, and the photographer and editor Emilie Hallard.

Who can participate?

Photographers from any corner of the world, professionals or not. Must be 18+ years old to enter.

How to participate?

- There are no fees of participation. It's free for all
- There's no specific topic or requirements regarding the methods used
- We accept only one single proposal per participant

Technical guidelines

*Note that not meeting the following guidelines can prevent your work from being considered

- Credits, text and other mentions must appear in English or with an English translation
- In case the photo project shown has an introduction text, make sure it doesn't exceed a 70 words limit. Remember it must appear in English or with its translation
- The video should be sent as a QuickTime file (.mov)
- As a guideline, the average tempo of this kind of production is around 10 images per minute
- The length of the video should be between 3 and 8 minutes.
- Export your video at a fairly good quality for a big projected screen (1024x768Pixels at least)

All entries must be sent via Wetransfer LINK to;
info@lanuu.cat

Please add the following information in the same email:

- Name of the author or collective
- Title of the project
- Short project statement
- Duration of the slideshow, to the second
- Software used to create the slideshow
- Musical credits